"2. SCHRUEBBERS gave signs, in his talk, that he is becoming interested in his new job. Radke commented aside that there were many parts of the work that Schruebbers did not yet understand. Schruebbers makes the impression of being a clean-cut, energetic executive of a relatively uncomplicated mentality and, if of only good average intellectual power, of having a good amount of courage. Mrs. Schruebbers complained that the new job required her husband to work too long hours and that she had found the security precautions taken for her benefit during the recent visit of Dr. and Mrs. Schruebbers to Berlin rather irksome. This was the first time that either of the two wives had met each other or the other's husband."
